

CLAIMS

1. Process of identification for transit systems/areas
2. The collection of information placed on one card utilized for identification
3. The use of biometrics, digitally captured fingerprint technology placed onto a card linked to a database for identity and clearance and verification/validation
4. Links to reservations, ticketing, federal security, boarding, member profiles, baggage claim and credit applications/databases/transit
5. All encompassing transactions, relations between the federal government, the identification, the cardholder and relating industries.